

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

FIRST READING

(Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord:

Here is my servant whom I uphold,
my chosen one in whom my soul delights.
I have endowed him with my spirit
that he may bring true justice to the nations.

He does not cry out or shout aloud,
or make his voice heard in the streets.
He does not break the crushed reed,
nor quench the wavering flame.

Faithfully he brings true justice;
he will neither waver, nor be crushed
until true justice is established on earth,
for the islands are awaiting his law.

I, the Lord, have called you
to serve the cause of right;
I have taken you by the hand and formed you;
I have appointed you as covenant of the people and light of nations,

to open the eyes of the blind,
to free captives from prison,
and those who live in darkness from the dungeon.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(Psalm 28)

Response: The Lord will bless his people
with peace.

- O give the Lord you sons of God,
give the Lord glory and power;
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Adore the Lord in his holy court. R/
- The Lord's voice resounding on the waters,
the Lord on the immensity of waters;
the voice of the Lord, full of power,
the voice of the Lord, full of splendour. R/
- The God of glory thunders.
In his temple they all cry: "Glory!"
The Lord sat enthroned over the flood;
the Lord sits as king for ever. R/

SECOND READING

(Acts 10:34-38)

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household:
"The truth I have now come to realise," he said, "is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him."

"It is true, God sent his word to the people of Israel, and it was to them that the good news of peace
was brought by Jesus Christ — but Jesus Christ is Lord of all men. You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil."

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God

ALLELUIA VERSE

Alleluia, alleluia!

The heavens opened, and the Father's voice
resounded: "This is my Son, the Beloved.
Listen to him."

Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL

(Luke 3:15-16, 21-22)

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, "I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am,
and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals;
he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Now when all the people had been baptised and while Jesus after his own baptism was at prayer, heaven opened, and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily shape, like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

If you pay income tax, and wish to Gift-Aid your regular giving, have a word with Fr Alban. It won't cost you a penny extra, but on behalf of the parish, it enables the diocese to reclaim the income tax you have paid on your giving. At the current rate of tax, for every £1 you give, the parish can benefit by twenty-five pence.

LUNCH CLUB

The monthly Lunch Club, held at Our Lady's on the second Tuesday of the month, is in desperate need of help from 10am – 2pm with the cooking and clearing. Without help, the Club is at risk of folding. Volunteers are asked to contact Mick Lugowski.

This month's Lunch Club will go ahead this Tuesday, 15th January. Please pay Mick for your meal. New members are always made most welcome – why not give it a try.

ST PATRICK'S CLEANERS

We thank all those who take it in turns to come and clean the church and the Meeting Room. Can you spare a couple of hours every eight weeks or so to help with cleaning the Church and Meeting Room? The more team members we have, the lighter the work-load for individual team members.

If you would like to offer to help with the cleaning, please have a word with Vivienne Pike, or Fr Alban. It normally only takes an hour or even less to clean the place. There is always tea and coffee available as well as biscuits....a worker deserves his or her cuppa!

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Jesus was baptized by John in the River Jordan so that he could be sealed by the Holy Spirit and strengthened for his mission. On this feast we too rededicate ourselves to our mission which we undertake by virtue of our own baptism. We proclaim by our lives that Jesus is the Son of God and the Saviour of the world.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING

SAINT OF THE WEEK - SAINT ANTHONY OF EGYPT

There is more than one St Anthony, and this one was born in Egypt around the year 250. He sold all that he had inherited from his parents and moved to the desert where he lived in a tomb in the cemetery. His life of contemplation and silence attracted other monks to come and join him, and so he founded the very first Christian monastery. He led a life of simplicity, weaving mats, doing gardening and looking after his pets. Known as a wise spiritual counsellor, he lived to be about one hundred and five years old. He is regarded as the "Father of Monasticism".
