28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING

2 Kings 5: 14-17

A reading from the second book of the Kings

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. "Now I know" he said "that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant." But Elisha replied, "As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing." Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, "Since your answer is 'No', allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord."

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 97

Response: The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord
for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm
have brought salvation. R/
2. The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel. R/
3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy. R/

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 2: 8-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Timothy

Remember the Good News that I carry, "Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David"; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we had died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

R/ Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia.

Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life:
you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia, alleluia

GOSPEL

Luke 17: 11-19

A reading from the holy gospel according to Luke

R/ Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came out to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, "Jesus! Master! Take pity on us." When he saw them he said, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, "Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner." And he said to the man, "Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

R/ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER REMEMBRANCES

Your prayers are asked for the sick and the housebound and all those who are in hospital, the Hospice or local nursing and care homes. We remember especially the doctors, nurses and all medical staff at our hospitals; also all the staff at our local nursing and care homes and parishioners shielding or self-isolating at home at this time.

We remember in prayer all who have died, especially Kathleen Stragg (Funeral Mass on 24th October) and Brian Broderick (Funeral Mass on 11th October) and all who are mourning the death of a loved one, and all whose anniversaries occur about this time.

THE POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR OCTOBER

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.

We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit may comfort them.

We pray for those with power over peace and war,
for wisdom, discernment, and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all we pray for the precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold them and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

CAN YOU HELP?

Mobile Phones

Our Lady's SVP would like to hear from anyone who may have a mobile phone(s) that they no longer use and would be willing to donate? Please contact Janet Beyer (President) tel: 01952 410315 or email: j.beyer202@virginmedia.com

Kettle

Do you have a spare electric kettle? Most of us have a spare kettle in the kitchen cupboard, 'a just in case' kettle that doesn't match anything.

In these days of austerity would you donate it? Could you bring it to Our Lady's or contact Rita Wilkinson 07803 281971.

Shed a little kindness and see how God gives back 100-fold in blessings. Thank you.

Many thanks to the parishioner who donated the travel cot. It was gratefully received.

LONDON MARATHON UPDATE

You may remember that you were invited to sponsor Estelle Hetherington (Michael and Lorraine Bradley's daughter) earlier in the year. Here is a message from her Justgiving page:

'Hi everyone! What a day it was yesterday! I really didn't want it to end. The marathon was the hardest challenge I've ever taken on. It was tough but I finished within my target time and managed to cross the line in 3 hours 53 minutes. There are people on here (just giving page) that I don't personally know, those who remained anonymous, and of course all of those I do know. I want to say a huge THANK YOU to everyone. The generosity is overwhelming and really spurred me on throughout my training and during the race itself. Thank you again.'
